

Kelly Nugent

6762 West 19th Place, Apartment 208 • Lakewood, CO 80214
Telephone: (720) 470-2778 • E-mail: knugent@rmcad.edu

Objective

- To create whimsical 2-D and 3-D illustrations through creative problem solving with an emphasis towards storytelling and invoking emotional response. Ultimately I aspire to create real personality in my illustrations so they inspire the audience's imagination. A person's imagination doesn't come with an age limit and should serve you for a lifetime.

Skills

- Proficiency in Adobe CS3 Premium Design: Adobe Photoshop, Adobe Illustrator and Adobe Dreamweaver.
- Proficiency in Microsoft Word, Microsoft Power Point, and Microsoft Excel.
- Proficiency with a Wacom Graphire tablet, with some Cintiq experience.
- Ability to work with both PC and Mac based platforms.

Education

Rocky Mountain College of Art and Design, Lakewood, Colorado
Bachelors of Fine Arts in Illustration, Magna Cum Laude, April 2008

Work Experience

A-Kon (Japanese Anime Convention), Dallas, Texas
June 2007

- Sale of illustrations and commissions at a private table in the Komik Market.

Selected Exhibitions

RMCAD Annual Juried Student Exhibition, Lakewood, Colorado

Spring 2005 (6 works)

Spring 2006 (1 work)

Spring 2007 (8 works)

Spring 2008 (4 works)

Bronze Award in 2005 for Computer Basics.

Volunteer Work

The Delores Project, Denver, Colorado

March 2008

- Design of invitations, contribution card and envelope for 7th Annual Art Show.

Hobbies

- Japanese animation and comics, as well as conventions pertaining to them.
- Annual attendance of Nan Desu Kan in Denver, Colorado since 2003.
- Going out to the movies, especially for animated or fantasy based films.

"From Drawing to Dimension"

www.k-choustudio.com